

Sharing Practice in Effective Learning and Teaching (SPELT)

Welcome

Education Enhancement is using this wiki to gather together case studies of effective and innovative good practice in learning and teaching from the University of Strathclyde. You can view case studies linked to a particular theme, in a Faculty, or browse the complete set. The search function can be used to seek case studies including specific terms or phrases.

If you have a case study to contribute please download and complete the submission form, or contact educationenhancement@strath.ac.uk with any questions.

Latest Updates

Uncovering the boundaries for learning through a Legitimate Peripheral Participation \(LPP\) and Communities of Practice \(COP\) .url attached Nov 24, 2021

Uncovering the boundaries for learning through a Legitimate Peripheral Participation \(LPP\) and Communities of Practice \(COP\) lens: A case of civil engineering students in post-summer placement transition through university updated Nov 29, 2017
view change

Sharing Practice in Effective Learning and Teaching \(SPELT\) updated Sep 25, 2015

Case Studies by Theme

Assessment and Feedback

Go to Assessment and Feedback

Curriculum Development

Go to Curriculum Development

Interdisciplinarity

Go to Interdisciplinarity

Internationalisation

Go to Internationalisation

Online and Distance Learning

Go to Online and Distance Learning

Staff Resources

Go to Staff Resources

Student Transitions

Go to Student Transitions

Case Studies by Faculty

Faculty of Engineering

Go to Case Studies

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Go to Case Studies

Faculty of Science

Go to Case Studies

Strathclyde Business School

Go to Case Studies